PORTFOLIO

BIO

Emre Ünaylı was born in April of 1988 in Turkey. He was the guy who would sit behind the classroom and draw movie posters or try to come up with synopsis for imaginary films during the classes. In 2006, he got in Beykent University's Cinema & Television program with full scholarship and graduated with high honors. In 2011, his life changed almost instantly when he's been accepted to the Miami Ad School's Art Direction program with scholarship. And it got better when he won two awards from Hollywood Reporter's Key Art Awards, including one Gold Statue as a student.

He's lucky enough to do what he's passionate about for a living.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Creative Intern - DMG - Beijing (2013)

As a part Miami Ad School's internship program, i worked in DMG Beijing for 3,5 months on accounts like Mazda, Wolswagen but most importantly in co-production of Marvel's Iron Man 3.
